CORAM: A.S.OKA,J.
DATE : 8TH APRIL 2005.

P.C.:

1. This application is for clarification of order dated 21st October 1994, passed by this Court which reads thus :- " After hearing the parties I do not see any ground to interfere with the order impugned excepting clarifying that the defendants shall be entitled to the use and occupation of the room No.58-B on the 4th Floor, and the amenities of ingress and egress and passing through the stair-case and using the sanitory blocks, only in a reasonable manner and at reasonable hours, as is done usually in respect of the commercial premises. Subject to the aforesaid clarification of the impugned order, appeal is dismissed. Civil Application stands disposed of accordingly."

2. The question raised in this application is what is the reasonable time and what is the reasonable manner which is referred to in the said order. If according to the Applicant the concerned Respondents are not abiding by the said order, it is for the Applicant to take out an appropriate application before the Trial Court.

3. Subject to above observations Civil Application disposed of with no order as to costs.
